(11) Original Painting by Wildlife Artist Dan Andrews. You will see Dan Andrews painting an original 14" x 26" work during the reception – and now you will have the opportunity to bid on that painting. "I strive to make each painting an emotional statement about a particular animal's nature," says Andrews. This commitment requires not only a detailed understanding of each animal's physical characteristics, but their habits and habitats as well. As a native Coloradoan, Dan has learned about Rocky Mountain wildlife by spending many hours in the field. Dan has been recognized as the Colorado Ducks Unlimited Artist of the Year; as the winning artist for the Kansas Wildlife Art Series, and as the winning artist for the Colorado Duck Stamp Contest and Wyoming Conservation Stamp Contest. Dan hopes that his paintings will encourage others to help preserve all wildlife and their habitat for future generations. Donated by Dan Andrews.

“I fish because I love to; because I love the environs where trout are found, which are invariably beautiful ... and, finally not because I regard fishing as being so terribly important but because I suspect that so many of the other concerns of men are equally important – and not nearly so much fun.” – Robert Traver, Anatomy of a Fisherman
